>moonsong@orisis.net In streaks a pair of withered screams

>As remnants fall from shattered dreams  br>Then spirits rise and dance unseen

>Upon a floor of moonlight beams

When whistling winds shriek through the trees >The shapes take flight from freezing breeze br>But shivers haunt their pitied pleas >Which holds its ground and never flees

Crazed, unknown the weaver flies >And wipes the dampness from his eyes br>As through her thoughts this reaper tries >Seduce her soul for last goodbyes

The ripened fruit of lust prevails >Unshaken by her wistful wails  br>His penetrating gaze impales

>She cries out for release and fails

But fiercer still his mind does grope >Hers frayed and torn on shredded rope  br>As nightwinds fly and stars elope >Away escapes last thoughts of hope.

Crazed, unknown the sleeper cries >And wipes the dampness from her eyes  br>As in her thoughts this

dreamer dies
>Escaping from her lips... goodbyes
